SUBJECT No. 547.

Sangameswaraswami temple at Harihar.

Mr. Lingappa, Harihar sub taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The Sangameswaraswami temple at Harihar is in the bed of the Tungabhadra river, the sand of which is heaped above the temple during floods. Every November, sand has to be removed, and Puja performed. A large number of devotees congregate during the car festival and in connection with this a cattle show is being held annually. The income from the shop tax, etc., of the jatra is nearly Rs. 500. The amount realized by Dabbikanike was Rs. 41-4-0 during the last two years. The temple may be ordered to be built on a higher level to avoid inconvenience referred to above. The work may cost about three or four hundred rupees.

Reply of Government.—Will be inquired into.
